Baldwinsville resident to serve on United Way's Board

[June 11, 2010, Syracuse NY]

Drew James recently was elected to United Way of Central New York's Board of Directors. James is vice president of operations at SRCTec, Inc. He also serves on United Way's Leadership Development Cabinet.

United Way of Central New York's Board of Directors is the governing body of United Way of Central New York. All board members and officers are volunteers.

United Way of Central New York is a non-profit serving Onondaga County that strives to help this community reach its full caring potential. Last year, United Way engaged with over 41,000 donors and more than 600 businesses to improve the lives of vulnerable people in this community, strengthen the system of agency services, and create measurable improvements in the quality of life in our area.
